50,000 Turks Captured By Bulgars and Greeks

SEALS DOOM OF CITY OF ADRIANOPOLE

Fortress of Kilisseeh Taken by Bulgars

LOSSES ARE ENORMOUS

Battle Raged for Two Days and Many Thousands Fell

TURKISH SOLDIERS CAPTURED

Field Guns and Ammunition Also Seized By the Victorious Bulgarians--Moslems Claiming Utter Rout of Servian Army.

London, Oct. 25.—Kirk-Kilesseh, the strategic aim of the Bulgarians in their attempt to capture Adrianople, which in turn would be of immense value to the Bulgarians in their attempt to throw a line of troops from the Black Sea to the Aegean sea as close to Constantinople as possible, was lost by the Turks after two days of hard fighting. The losses on both sides were tremendous; hand-to-hand combat at the point of the bayonet won for the Bulgarians.

Kirk-Kilesseh, both a town and a fortress, is located about 35 miles east of Adrianople, in a mountain defile, and guards one method of communication between Constantinople and Adrianople. Its capture robs the position of defense for the Turks and gives the Bulgarians another stronghold in their march toward Constantinople, 100 miles away.

The Bulgarians captured 1,200 prisoners, several Krupps and rapid-fire guns and a quantity of wagons and ammunition. The Turks, after the engagement, began a rapid retreat to Viza, which is 74 miles northeast of Constantinople.

The Turks themselves officially admit that their troops are retreating. They state in Constantinople however, that there was a heavy engagement, and that the Turks, not being in sufficient force to press the attack, began an orderly retreat. Bulgarian dispatches; however, describe the aftermath of the battle as a rout of the most complete order, fleeing Turks abandoning their heavy guns to travel faster while the Bulgarians followed and pressed them. One report had it that 50,000 Turks were captured. Official announcements contain no reference to this, and it is regarded as untrue.

He simply forgot to smile when the camera clicked. He is enthusiastic over the coming future of aeroplanes for military use in America.

Big Car Shortage Say The Operators

Increases Noted In Hard and Soft Coal Prices.

Cleveland, Oct. 25.—Cleveland coal dealers announce a probable increase in the retail prices of soft coal from 25 to 75 cents a ton.

Hard coal, already beyond the pocketbook of the average Cleveland, is expected to pass the $10 mark before the winter is over.

"The situation is the most serious in the history of the city," declared Charles A. Zettelmeyer, president of the Zettelmeyer Coal company. "Unless wholesale prices go down before retailers exhaust their supply purchased last summer, the consumer will be gouged to the limit. Instead of cutting wholesale prices, however, operators during the past month have been boosting them."

Columbus operators announced an increase in wholesale prices of soft coal, varying from 15 to 25 cents a ton. Cleveland operators say they are asking more than a month ago.

"Car shortage is to blame," said C. E. Maurer, president of the Glens Run Coal company. "Operators have been able to run their mines at only 60 per cent of capacity."

The wholesale price of three-fourths lump, according to Zettelmeyer, is from 25 to 40 cents a ton higher than a month ago. Pocahontas, he says, is 25 cents higher wholesale than a week ago, while slack is from 50 to 75 cents higher than a year ago. Nut coal, he says, has advanced 50 cents.

Here are present soft coal prices: West Virginia, forked lump, $5.75; shovel, $5.25; run of mine, $4.25; slack, $7.50; Ohio lump, $4.75.

Six Men Arrested In Tarring Affair

Seventh Man Also Held on Indictment Charging Perjury.

Norwalk, Oct. 25.—Six men were arrested at West Clarksfield on indictments charging them with riotous conspiracy in connection with the recent tarring or painting of Minnie La Valley, a young woman of that village. A seventh man was arrested on an indictment charging perjury in connection with his testimony before the grand jury in its investigation of the occurrence.

Reginald Thomas, a constable, was among those charged with the attack on the girl. Others arrested for alleged participation were Joseph Cummings, Joseph and Carl Sly, Harlow and Ernest Welch. All are well known in West Clarksfield. They range in ages from 20 to 40 years. The seven will be arraigned here this afternoon.

Minnie La Valley was seized on the street of the village the night of Aug. 30, divested of clothing and smeared with tar or paint. It was alleged at the time that women, dressed as men, had taken part in the affair. This finding of the grand jury denied.

EMULATES NOGI'S TRAGIC DEED

Admiral Held Himself Responsible For Illness of the Czar's Young Son, Who Was Injured While Playing on Board the Royal Yacht—Suicide Causes Sensation in Russian Court Circles.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 25.—The suicide by shooting of Rear Admiral Chagin, commander of the czar's yacht Standart, created a great sensation, which was intensified when reports connected the admiral's act with the sickness of the czarevitch. Chagin was a bachelor and lived in a flat here with two valets when not at sea. He spent his last night in his flat writing letters to relatives and arranging his affairs in such a manner as to show that his suicide was deliberate as that of General Nogi. When he had completed all his business he secured a loaded rifle, filled the barrel with water and fired at his head, which was almost completely blown away.

An unsealed note was found on his writing table which read: "I ask that robbery be accused of my death."

Nothing is certainly known as to the reason for the admiral's suicide, but gossip, which has now abandoned the pony story, declares that the injury to the czarevitch was due to a fall which he sustained while climbing the spars of the Standart or otherwise playing on the royal yacht, and that Admiral Chagin was so overwhelmed with a sense of responsibility for the accident to the heir to the throne that he resolved to die.

Chagin was regarded as one of the ablest of the Russian commanders. He led the Russian Jackies at Peking during the Boxer rebellion and commanded the cruiser Almaz at Tsushima, whence he safely took her to Vladivostok at the outbreak of the war with Japan.

The czarevitch had a comparatively good day. The nature of the boy's sickness continues to be a mystery.

In some quarters it was rumored that Chagin's suicide was due to a love affair. He believed he had been jilted by his sweetheart, but this proved to be a mistake. When the girl learned of the officer's suicide, it is reported, she cut her throat with a razor and fell dead.

Fire Made Prisoners Glad.
Jackson, Mich., Oct. 25.—Fire, believed to have been set by convicts, started in the big binder twine warehouse of the state prison here. All that remains of the building is the brick walls. The convicts were in their cells when the fire broke out. They looked out between the bars in glee at the flames. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

Jury In Rosenthal Murder Case Returns Midnight Verdict.

DRAMATIC SCENE IN COURT

Convicted Man Bears Up Under the Shock With the Resolution That Has Characterized Him All Through the Trial—Fortitude Shown by the Lieutenant's Wife No Less Remarkable—Climax of a Noted Trial.

New York, Oct. 25.—"Guilty of murder in the first degree," was the verdict of Lieutenant Charles Becker's jury at midnight.

The jury had been out exactly seven hours and 57 minutes. The length of its deliberation and the frequency of its requests for exhibits, together with an unmistakable sign of hot argument in the jury room, had led most of those who waited late at the criminal courts building to believe that there would be no agreement.

So that when the blow finally fell upon the defendant, its force was all the more crushing. The convicted man bore up under the shock with the firmness and resolution that had characterized him all through the trial. When the momentous answer came, and the question by a clerk of the court, "Gentlemen, have you agreed on a verdict?" the lieutenant turned calmly toward H. B. Skinner, the foreman, and displayed no emotion whatever as Mr. Skinner pronounced a few short words that spelled his fate.

No less remarkable was the fortitude with which the wife of the convicted man withheld the first impact of the worst news. When the verdict was delivered she was in sight and hearing of the spokesman for the jury. She did not flinch, she uttered no sound. She looked calmly at her husband as he stood at the bar and even summoned a smile for his encouragement. It was later, though, that she succumbed—she fainted.

Becker was remanded to the Tombs by Justice Goff until Oct. 30.

John F. McIntyre, Becker's chief counsel, announced that he would take an immediate appeal, but added beyond this he had nothing to say.

Pugilist Johnson Loses His Saloon

Brewery, Not the Pugilist, It Develops Owned the Resort.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Government investigators began tracing important witnesses wanted in the federal grand jury investigation that is directed at Jack Johnson. Several of the most material witnesses desired fled from the city when the government began its inquiry, and it is hoped to apprehend them before the resumption of the grand jury investigation next Monday. It came to light that Johnson's license for the saloon and cafe at 41 West Thirty-first street is owned by a brewery. The owner has transferred it from Johnson to another holder, effective Nov. 1, when renewals are made.

BULL MOOSE CANDIDATES ADDRESS LARGE AUDIENCE AT MEMORIAL HALL TODAY

Progressive Candidates for Governor, Attorney General and Congressman-at-large, Speak.

RANDOLPH W. WALTON FLAYS LEADERS OF OTHER PARTIES

Enthusiastic Crowd of 500 Fills Memorial Hall to Hear Leaders of New Party Make Confession of Faith and Bull Moose Doctrines Explained.

Regardless of the fact that it was the noon hour some five hundred persons flocked to Memorial hall to hear the Progressive speakers who arrived in this city on the Bull Moose special at 11:40 o'clock Friday morning, and considerable enthusiasm was displayed by the large audience.

The special came in over the Pennsylvania railroad from Wilmington and was met at the Pennsylvania station by a crowd of more than 100. Local Bull Moose enthusiasts had their automobiles in waiting and quickly conveyed the party to Memorial hall, where the crowd was gathered and speaking commenced.

Mr. Walton accused Mr. Finley of pocketing half of the $60 a month salary of his stenographer until Gov. Harris called a halt.

Secretary Graves was dubbed a puppet and the charge was made that the decision made by that official that prevented the names of candidates from appearing on more than one ticket, was not his own finding, but the combined voices of Messrs. Finley and Daugherty through Graves. The speaker made no reference to the fact that the Supreme court of Ohio a few days later upheld Secretary Graves in his decision, but he held that the repeal of Dana law in reality made it possible for names to appear on more than one ticket, and implied that Graves acted wrongfully through the machinations of Finley and Daugherty.

To Mr. Daugherty the speaker was particularly attentive in his remarks, stating that he knew that this city is the old home of Mr. Daugherty, but notwithstanding that, he was physically and morally responsible for his statements. He accused Mr. Daugherty of practicing bossism for the last 35 years and called upon the audience to hear him out in the assertion which was followed by much clapping of hands.

Mr. Walton also accused Mr. Daugherty of bringing about the most miserable act in the administration of President Taft—that of releasing from the Federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., Bunker Morse, the Ice King, of New York City, "who robbed the people of millions". Mr. Daugherty was charged with having received $50,000 for his service.

Mr. Daugherty was also accused of being for years a high-priced lobbyist before the Ohio legislature, and the direct statement was made that Mr. Daugherty received for lobbying in the legislature the sum of $24,000, paid by certain eastern parties. Mr. Walton predicted the end of all such things and prophesied the complete route of both old parties in November.

Mentioning Dr. R. M. Hughey, Republican candidate for Congress from this district, he said that the Harry Daugherty workers will be found knifing Dr. Hughey on election day because he has the indorsement of the Bull Moose.

Progressive candidate for Governor, A. L. Garford, was next introduced and after addressing the audience as "Bull Moose", spoke for fifteen minutes drawing forth several outbursts of applause. He mentioned the interest and enthusiasm he had found in all parts of the state which he had visited, and predicted one of the largest votes on the fifth of November that has been cast in years. He also predicted the success of the Progressives.

Taking up the subject of citizenship he stated that the Progressive party stood for good citizenship, free from bossism, and that the Progressives meant to overthrow bossism. He pointed out Doctor Nye, the self-confessed grafter, as being proof that grafting has existed on an extensive scale, and said that Nye had plenty of companions in his nefarious work, and that he was a sample of what crooked bosses could do and had been doing right along.

"The Progressive party is the only party that makes man greater than the dollar, and it is the party that will make the nation known for its manhood and not for its material wealth," he said.

Expressing himself as confident of being elected on November 5th, and promising to have a "house cleaning" at Columbus, he closed his address by further pledging an honest, efficient and business-like administration when he is made governor.

Robert R. Nevin, Progressive candidate for attorney general, was introduced and made a brief speech, in which he said, among other things, that he had deliberately walked from the breastworks of the Republican party because he believed no self-respecting man could longer stay within its folds.

He also lambasted Congressman Cox and accused Gov. Wilson of being slow to adopt Progressive measures, and accused both parties of stealing Progressive "thunder".

He was interrupted by the announcement that "time's up", and expressed his desire to further discuss the issues before the same crowd at some future time.

Leaving the hall, the party was conveyed by auto to the B. & O. station to board the special, but through some misunderstanding the train had been left near the old freight station on the C. H. & D. railroad and a delay of 20 minutes occurred. While waiting on the train Mr. Garford was approached by a man who asked him how he stood on the saloon question, and was soon convinced that he was an enemy of the saloon and had spent a great deal of time fighting the same. The special pulled out at 12:42, bound for Xenia.

A number of newspaper men and politicians accompanied the special.

Note Destroyed Suit Is Brought

C. E. Baughn, as guardian of Opal Ott, has brought suit against Joseph Chestnut for the recovery of $550 due on a promissory note which was destroyed in the fire of December 30th, when a great many of Mr. Baughn's papers were destroyed in the Masonic Temple.

He alleges that the note was dated March 29, 1911, was due in one year and bore six per cent. interest, and that no payments had been made on the note.

He further alleges that a mortgage deed was delivered to him by the defendant in which lot No. 81, in Pavey's addition was offered as security. The plaintiff now asks that the premises be sold that the judgment of $550 with interest be satisfied.

RANDOLPH W. WALTON FLAYS LEADERS OF OTHER PARTIES

Enthusiastic Crowd of 500 Fills Memorial Hall to Hear Leaders of New Party Make Confession of Faith and Bull Moose Doctrines Explained.

Regardless of the fact that it was the noon hour some five hundred persons flocked to Memorial hall to hear the Progressive speakers who arrived in this city on the Bull Moose special at 11:40 o'clock Friday morning, and considerable enthusiasm was displayed by the large audience.

The special came in over the Pennsylvania railroad from Wilmington and was met at the Pennsylvania station by a crowd of more than 100. Local Bull Moose enthusiasts had their automobiles in waiting and quickly conveyed the party to Memorial hall, where the crowd was gathered and speaking commenced.

SMART CLOTHES

"It's a Stein-Bloch. The label's right, so I know the garment's right."

The Clothes of Quality

We permit no lowering of standards—our aim is to offer quality in clothing regardless of price.

Our clothes even in the less expensive grades are up to the general high tone of more costly clothing. Because the makers of expensive clothes confine their efforts to the better grades, but our clothes survive the crucial test of giving quality at a moderate cost.

Belief that prevented the names of candidates from appearing on more than one ticket, was not his own finding, but the combined voices of Mearns, Finley and Daugherty through Graves. The speaker made no reference to the fact that the Supreme court of Ohio a few days later upheld Secretary Graves in his decision, but he held that the repeal of Dams law in reality made it possible for names to appear on more than one ticket, and implied that Graves acted wrongfully through the machinations of Finley and Daugherty.

To Mr. Daugherty the speaker was particularly attentive in his remarks, stating that he knew that this city is the old home of Mr. Daugherty, but notwithstanding that, he was physically and morally responsible for his statements. He accused Mr. Daugherty of practicing bossism for the last 35 years and called upon the audience to bear him out in the assertion which was followed by much clapping of hands.

Mr. Walton also accused Mr. Daugherty of bringing about the most miserable act in the administration of President Taft—that of releasing from the Federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., Bunker Morse, the Lee King, of New York City, "who robbed the people of millions". Mr. Daugherty was charged with having received $50,000 for his service.

Mr. Daugherty was also accused of being for years a high-priced lobbyist before the Ohio legislature, and the direct statement was made that Mr. Daugherty received for lobbying in the legislature the sum of $24,000, paid by certain eastern parties. Mr. Walton predicted the end of all such things and prophesied the complete route of both old parties in November.

Mentioning Dr. R. M. Hughey, Republican candidate for Congress from this district, he said that the Harry Daugherty workers will be found knifing Dr. Hughey on election day because he has the indorsement of the Bull Moose.

Progressive candidate for Governor, A. L. Garford, was next introduced and after addressing the audience as "Bull Moose", spoke for fifteen minutes drawing forth several outbursts of applause. He mentioned the interest and enthusiasm he had found in all parts of the state which he had visited, and predicted one of the largest votes on the fifth of November that has been cast in years. He also predicted the success of the Progressives.

Taking up the subject of citizenship he stated that the Progressive party stood for good citizenship, free from bossism, and that the Progressives meant to overthrow bossism. He pointed out Doctor Nye, the self-confessed graftor, as being proof that grafting has existed on an extensive scale, and said that Nye had plenty of companions in his nefarious work, and that he was a sample of what crooked bosses could do and had been doing right along. "The Progressive party is the only party that makes man greater than the dollar, and it is the party that will make the nation known for its manhood and not for its material wealth," he said.

Expressing himself as confident of being elected on November 5th, and promising to have a "house cleaning" at Columbus, he closed his address by further pledging an honest, efficient and business-like administration when he is made governor.

Robert R. Nevin, Progressive candidate for attorney general, was introduced and made a brief speech, in which he said, among other things, that he had deliberately walked from the breastworks of the Republican party because he believed no self-respecting man could longer stay within its folds.

He also lambasted Congressman Cox and accused Gov. Wilson of being slow to adopt Progressive measures, and accused both parties of stealing Progressive "thunder".

He was interrupted by the announcement that "time's up", and expressed his desire to further discuss the issues before the same crowd at some future time.

Leaving the hall, the party was conveyed by auto to the B. & O. station to board the special, but through some misunderstanding the train had been left near the old freight station on the C. H. & D. railroad and a delay of 20 minutes occurred. While waiting on the train Mr. Garford was approached by a man who asked him how he stood on the saloon question, and was soon convinced that he was an enemy of the saloon and had spent a great deal of time fighting the same. The special pulled out at 12:42, bound for Xenia.

A number of newspaper men and politicians accompanied the special.

Note Destroyed Suit Is Brought

South High Will Be Here Tomorrow

C. E. Baughn, as guardian of Opal Ott, has brought suit against Joseph Chestnut for the recovery of $550 due on a promissory note which was destroyed in the fire of December 30th, when a great many of Mr. Baughn's papers were destroyed in the Masonic Temple.

He alleges that the note was dated March 29, 1911, was due in one year and bore six per cent. interest, and that no payments had been made on the note.

He further alleges that a mortgage deed was delivered to him by the defendant in which lot No. 81, in Pavey's addition was offered as security. The plaintiff now asks that the premises be sold that the judgment of $550 with interest be satisfied.

The Sugar Grove W. C. T. U. greatly enjoyed this week's meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alice Parrett, of this city.

Stone Ordered For Bad Pike

The Commissioners have ordered five car loads of crushed stone to place on the Circleville pike at a point just east of the Bogus road and also at a point near the Stewart school house, where the road is in very bad condition.

The stone will arrive within the next few days and will be distributed at once, so that when bad weather commences the road will not be bottomless as was the case last spring.

A section of road on Dayton avenue will also be repaired before the bad weather sets in.

The Commissioners have been greatly handicapped in road building this year because a monthly payment of $1,000 has been necessary to meet the bridge bonds issued two years ago. The $18,000 will soon be paid, and more money will be available for road building next year.

BOOST THE FOOTBALL TEAM.

Tomorrow on the local gridiron the Washington C. H. Football team will attempt to wrest victory from South High of Columbus. It will be a great game and the football warriors are sanguine of victory.

Go out and root for them. A big crowd of sympathizers, yelling like mad, is a mighty factor in sending the pigskin over the goal and in the team's success.

There never was a team of any kind that didn't respond to boosting.

The 1912-1913 eleven is made up of the right stuff—boys with ginger, brawn and brain, but they need the encouragement of a sympathetic public, and they haven't had it.

It's a mighty poor community that can't send a big crowd to its High school football game, and is too indolent to boost it along. The very fact that the boys are eager to bring Washington High school to the front and to give it first place in the world of High school athletics ought to arouse interest in every loyal citizen.

We certainly want W. C. H. to be a winner.

No less ought we push to accomplishment the ambition of the players to win, and to appreciate their willingness to sacrifice personal comfort and ease for the honor and glory of their High school.

Coach Hidy is proud of "my boys" and thinks the team is developing rapidly into a good one. Especially is he pleased over the way in which each player is assuming individual responsibility and at the same time is sacrificing individual play for the collective. It is the natural tendency to "star", to draw the plaudits of the grandstand, and the players who can sacrifice that for the ultimate gain of the team are the true football warriors.

Capt. Mobley and Manager Zimmerman, all-round, heady players, at the head of the team, have shown unusual executive ability in their management and have one of the best schedules ever secured for the local High school.

The only game the team has lost was to Springfield, booked for the state championship. Even against the big fellows of the Springfield team, an old bunch of players, our team tore through the line and proved the only team that ever made down on Springfield.

The local team is developing rapidly. It is impossible to make a football team in a few weeks of practice, but the team is headed towards its goal for a winning eleven.

The new football game, an open game, without the dangerous massed plays, is much more interesting to spectators than the old game. Every effort has been made to eliminate danger and the forward pass is a much used and spectacular feature of the present season's games.

Not one of our team has been injured in the four games which have been played.

Come out tomorrow and see the new game and the plucky W. C. H. team.

American Slang More Serviceable Than Old Language

By Dr. G. HANORE,

Professor of Languages of the University of Copenhagen

AMERICANS are the ROMANS OF THE FUTURE. They are the authors of a new tongue which will take the place of Britain's English.

AMERICANS HAVE RELEGATED THE OLD ENGLISH LANGUAGE INTO THE BACKGROUND, BURIED IT AND SUBSTITUTED A LANGUAGE OF THEIR OWN—UNIQUE IN ITS BREVITY AND ITS SLANG. THE SO CALLED SLANG OF THE PRESENT AMERICAN TONGUE IS FAR MORE POETICAL, PICTURESQUE AND SERVICEABLE THAN THE ENGLISH OF SHAKESPEARE'S TIME.

The new American tongue, like the new American music—rag-time—has the CLASSICS BEATEN TO A FINISH and down and out. Your authors of today will give Shakespeare and his fellows the count tomorrow.

A few hundred years from now they will be speaking American over in England instead of English. The Americans of the future, like the Romans of the old world, will BRANCH OUT AND BY CONQUEST ABSORB MANY OTHER LANDS.

Canada and Mexico in a few hundred years will be a part of the United States. I firmly believe that Ireland of her own accord will also come under the wing of the United States on the breaking up of the British empire. ENGLAND MAY BECOME A STATE OF AMERICA in time to save herself from rule by Germany.

The great war of the future will be between Germany and the United States. The victor will have to combat China.

Poetry For Today

THE PLAGUE OF THE CRANKS.

We could hope despite the failure of our ventures, now and then; We could gladly lend assistance to our weaker fellow men; We could be assured of some day winning all that we have planned; If there were no crazy people roaming up and down the land.

We could view the other nations from a station that was high, And achieve the greatest glory ever won beneath the sky;

We could rid our land of evils and the future would be bright If there were no crazy people left to rob us of our right.

Though our ills are oft vexations, though our enemies are strong; Though our feet are often weary and the way is very long, We could hope to be triumphant, to achieve our purpose still; If there were no fools who fancied God had chosen them to kill.

We could cease to grope in darkness, we could clear ourselves of shame;

All the splendor we have dreamed of We should some day proudly claim; we should some day proudly contempt of other lands If there were no crazy people left with weapons in their hands.

DO YOU ENJOY EATING?

Or Does Everything You Eat Distress You.

Experts declare that the reason stomach disorders are so common in this country is due to hasty and careless habits of eating. Stomach troubles and run-down conditions also usually go together.

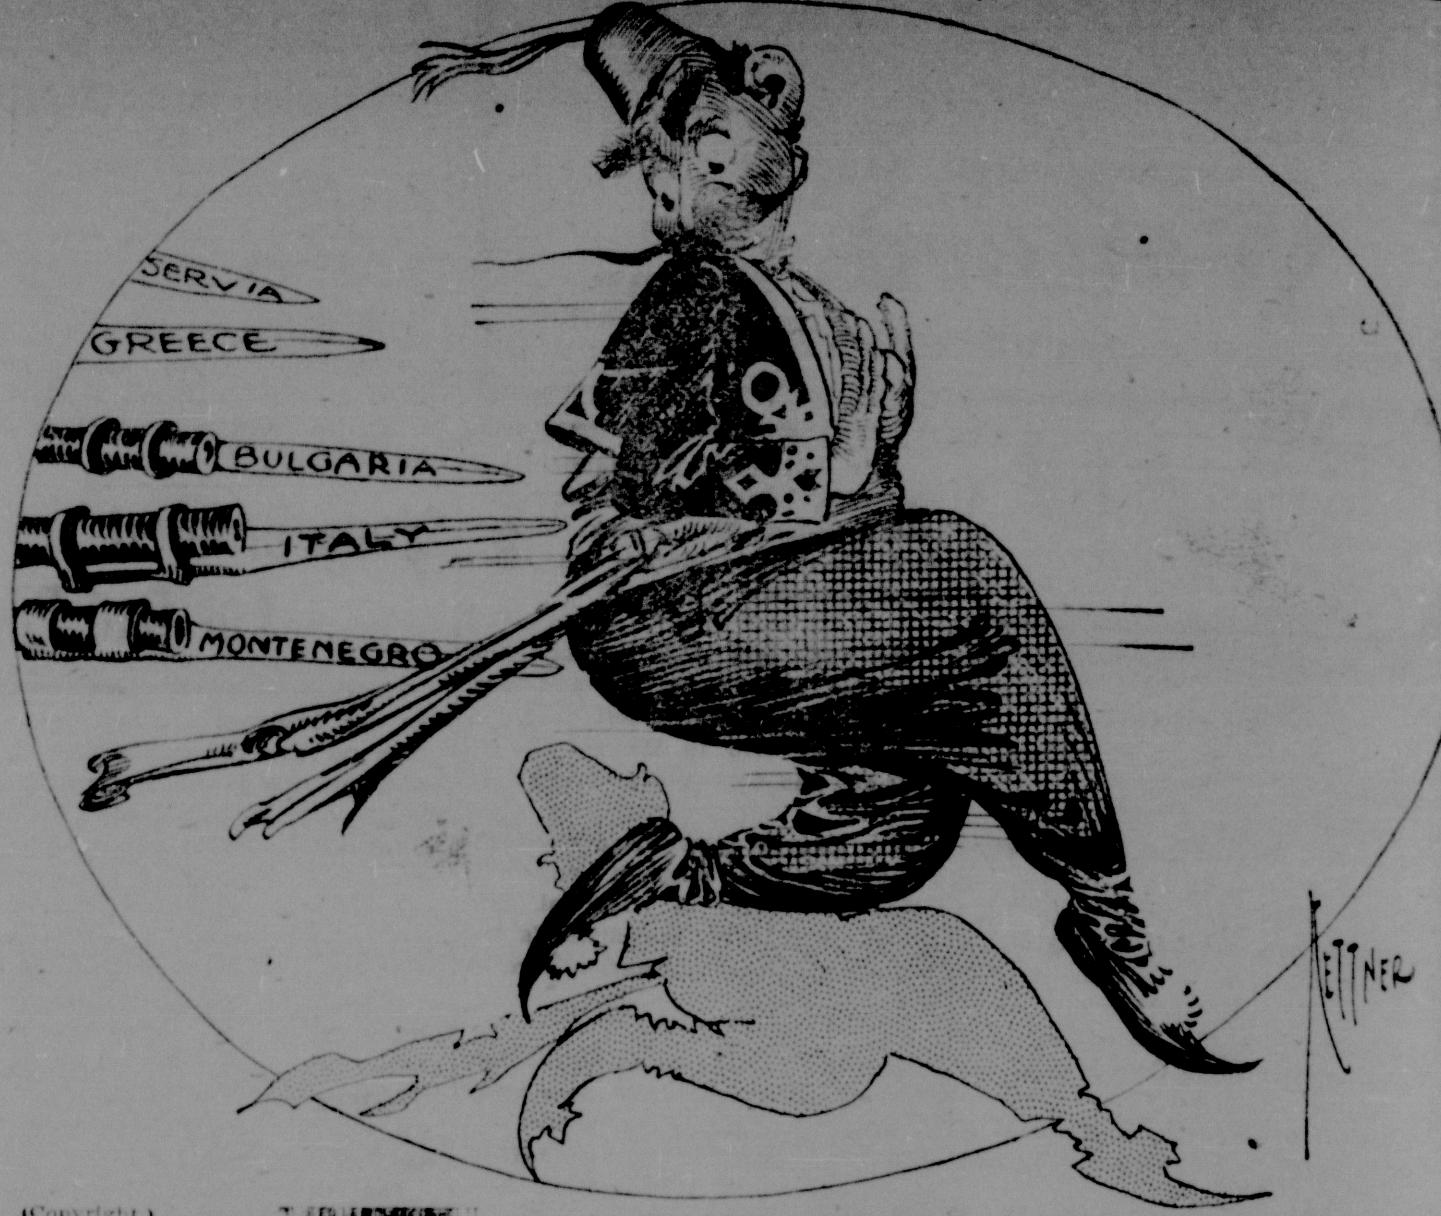

John Lind, of Oneonta, N. Y., says: "I had a bad stomach trouble for fifteen years and became so weak that I could hardly walk or do any work. My appetite was very poor, and it seemed impossible to get any relief. Since taking two bottles of Vinol I find that it has already made a remarkable improvement in my health, my digestion is much stronger, and I have gained in weight."

Vinol makes weak stomachs strong because it strengthens and tones up the weakened, tired and overtaxed nerves of the digestive organs. Vinol is easily assimilated by the weakest stomachs, and is delicious to the taste.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists, Washington C. H., Ohio.

The Guiding Star in Stove Buying

Wise men, and wise women, for nearly three-quarters of a century, have looked to this sign to guide them in the selection of their stoves. Unheeding the frantic appeals of the imitators, untempted by the bait of low prices, they have followed steadfastly the sign which leads straight to stove satisfaction.

Follow the star in this city, and you'll walk straight into our store. You'll find here the full line of a dozen distinct patterns, each embodying more in the way of improvements, conveniences, good looks and good-wearing qualities than was ever offered you in a stove; every one sold under an iron-clad guarantee, made by us and backed up by the factory in the strongest terms possible.

Make up your mind to "Own an Estate" this season, and you'll have settled the stove problem for all time. Look for the trade-mark in the store or on the stove, to make sure you get the genuine.

Chas. W. Marks Painfully Hurt

At the Jamestown races Thursday afternoon, Mr. Chas. W. Mark, residing four miles west of this city, was very painfully injured when a horse in front of him fell and his sulky struck it, throwing him to the ground and severely bruising him.

Mr. Mark climbed upon the sulky and continued the race, but later became so ill that he was removed to the hotel in Jamestown. He is reported considerably better at present.

Husband Lives In This City

Hanna Simpson, of Richmondale, has filed a petition for divorce in Common Pleas court against her husband, Paul Simpson, who also was a former resident of that village, but who now lives at Washington C. H. In her petition for divorce Mrs. Simpson says that she and her husband were married at Greenup, Ky., on February 24, 1912 and that no children were born to them. Her one cause of action is that her husband lived with Miss Ada Breth of this city at Springfield, where she was recognized as his wife.

The case attracted considerable attention several months ago, when Miss Breth disappeared. It was understood that she and young Simpson were engaged to be married, but later it developed that he had already been married to the Richmondale girl, although they never lived together as man and wife.

Miss Breth was finally induced to give the young man up and returned to her home in this city. Mrs. Simpson in addition to a divorce, asks that she be restored to her maiden name of Hanna Case. The petition was filed by W. G. Hyde—Chillicothe Advertiser.

Mrs. Paul Wehling, 316 Smith St., Peoria, Ill., had kidney and bladder trouble, with terrible backache and pain across the hips. Just imagine her condition. She further says: "I was also very nervous, had headaches and dizzy spells, and was fast getting worse when I took Foley Kidney Pills, and now all my troubles are cured. Foley Kidney Pills have done so much for me I shall always recommend them." Foley Kidney Pills are rich in curative qualities and contain no habit forming drugs. Try them. Girls Included Warning Issued

The curfew ordinance is being rigidly enforced in Jeffersonville where all children under sixteen years of age must be off of the streets after seven o'clock under penalty of suffering arrest and fine.

It seems that some of the young girls have been violating the ordinance, and the following warning has thereby been elicited from His Honorable Mayor Davis:

"Notice to Girls.—Mayor Davis wants it understood that the curfew applies to the girls under 16, as well as to the boys of that age. It will be well to take notice and keep off the street after seven p. m., unless accompanied by your parents."

Mrs. Peter Nolan, 11501 Buckeye Rd., Cleveland, O., says: "Yes, indeed I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. My little boy had a bad case of whooping cough, sometimes he was blue in the face. I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and it had a remarkable effect and cured him in a short time." Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and do not accept any substitute. Children like it, grown folks are quickly helped by it, and it contains no opiates. Will Not Cast! Vote This Year Indications are that a great many voters will not go to the polls this year, according to the registration figures of various surrounding cities, and also according to reports from various sources.

The total registration in Chillicothe on the four days this year was 3,760 or 406 less than the registration of the last presidential election in 1908 which was 4,166.

In Lancaster the registration for the four days was 3,020 or 253 votes short of the vote cast in Lancaster for the presidential candidates in 1908. The city vote that year was 3,273.

The registration in Newark this year was 6,538 or 417 less than the registration of 1908.

Funeral Of Madge Carman

One of the largest home funerals ever held in the county was that of Miss Madge Carman at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Carman of Seldon, Thursday afternoon.

The pathos of the death of this talented and lovely girl, idolized by her family and a favorite with all who knew her, called to the great beyond so prematurely, and in a far land, touched a wide circle and from all parts of the county people gathered, crowding the house and overflowing the large grounds.

A simple and effective service was conducted by Rev. Ricketts, of Staunton, assisted by Rev. Jason Henkle, of the M. P. church.

Two beautiful duets were sung by Mrs. J. B. Mark and daughter, Miss Katharine, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Mark Bush.

The songs were, "Some One's Last Call" and "Closer to Thee," favorites of Madge's and the ones that she had often sung to her father. Sobs broke through the music and many turned towards the beautiful girl, who slept so peacefully amid a wealth of flowers.

It was gratifying to friends to learn from the pastor something of the last weeks of life in Asheville, N. C. Her nurse, and every one with whom she came in contact learned to love her and during such a short time her life bloomed like a flower, leaving its perfume in the South as it had done in the North. Her death was beautiful and brave. From the first she did not expect to get well and charged Mrs. W. A. Rogers, of Good Hope, in Asheville for the winter, and who was with her during her illness, to comfort her family and to tell them that she was not afraid to die. Her sole thought seems to be to console her mother and the devoted brother, Dr. Will Carman, who had left his practice in Kentucky to be with her in Asheville, and to send back through them messages of comfort to her family here.

Rev. Ricketts paid deserved tribute to Miss Carman's lovely character and to the talent of the young artist, so far beyond the ordinary. Beautiful letters from the President of Ot-

QUIT CALOMEL!

Thousands Are Turning from This Dangerous Drug.

A Safe Vegetable Substitute is Olive Tablets for the Liver.

Dr. F. M. Edwards, a prominent physician of Ohio, has discovered a new laxative and liver toner in a combination of vegetable materials, mixed with olive oil, which is in effect almost exactly like the old and untrustworthy calomel, except that there are none of the bad after effects of calomel.

Dr. Edwards has long been a foe of calomel, though he recognized its value along with its dangers.

His distrust of the uncertain drug eventually started him years ago towards experiments with the view of discovering a substitute, and he is today in possession of the long-sought-for combination, which is in the shape of a little sugar-coated, olive-oil colored tablet.

The results of 17 years' experience and practice are embodied in these marvelous little tablets.

They are called Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. They oil the bowels, and their effect on the liver has been the means of relief to many of Dr. Edwards' regular patients as well as to thousands of others who have suffered and were afraid of calomel.

They are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities. 10c and 25c per box.

JOHNSON FOUND GUILTY OF ATTEMPTED BURGLARY

Verdict Returned After Jury Had Deliberated 30 Minutes and a Sentence of One to Fifteen Years in Penitentiary May Be Passed.

Charles Johnson, alias Robinson, the colored man who was placed on trial Thursday for attempted burglary and larceny, was found guilty by the jury after a half hour of deliberation Friday morning, and now the man faces a sentence of from one to fifteen years in the Ohio penitentiary.

The evidence was all submitted Thursday, and the argument commenced. The argument was finished and the charge given to the jury late Friday morning.

When the verdict was handed to the clerk by Foreman T. A. Pavay, and after it had been read by the clerk, Attorney F. A. Chaffin, who has been defending the man, called for a poll of the jury, and later made a motion for a new trial. Further action is expected at once.

Johnson, or Robinson is the man who tried to enter the Palmer store on East Court street, one night last summer, and has been confined in the county jail since that time.

During the trial Prosecutor Gregg presented a letter from the officials of one of the southern states, in which Johnson is alleged to have been sentenced to a long term in the penitentiary for a serious crime.

Gen. Wood On The Balkan Campaign

Says It Gives Arbitration Champions Something to Think About.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 25.—"War is not over, and never will be, so long as men are men," says Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the United States army, who is here inspecting proposed sites for fortifications.

"The war in the Balkans," he continued, "surely gives the champions of arbitration something to think about. Arbitration will not maintain the peace of the world. A nation's only safeguard against the horrors of war is preparedness for war."

Attack Puerto Plata

Dominican Rebels Now in Control of Province of Samana.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Dominican rebels have secured control over practically all of the province of Samana on the north coast of the republic, according to dispatches received at the state department. It is reported that the rebels have bombarded the town of Samana, at the head of the bay. They have also captured Sanchez and Sabana de Mer. American marines will be landed at Sabana if necessary for the protection of American interests. It is learned also that fighting has taken place in the streets of Puerto Plata. There have been casualties in these skirmishes.

Pyromaniac Dies.

Columbus, O., Oct. 25.—David Goodrich, 60, the man who 30 years ago is said to have started the fire which consumed the Home for Feeble-Minded Youth, died at St. Francis hospital from internal injuries suffered when he was kicked in the pit of the stomach by a mule on the farm of his employer, A. W. Kilbourne, near Westerville.

Refuses to Accept Plea.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 25.—Judge Ford, in criminal court, refused to accept the plea of guilty to first degree murder offered by Gabriel Nagy, 21, who confessed to killing his sweetheart, Matilda Majzik, 13. Nagy is under constant surveillance in the jail for fear he will take his own life. His trial was set for Nov. 25.

BIRTHPLACE OF JOHN BUNYAN

Little English Village Still Boasts of House in Which "Immortal Dreamer" Was Born.

London, England.—The little village of Elsboro, near Bedford, will always be remembered as the birthplace of John Bunyan, and the cottage is still shown where the "immortal dreamer" was born. It was while in Bedford jail for "conscience sake" that Bunyan ministered to all posterity by writing the "Pilgrim's Progress" from this world to the world to come, under the similitude of a dream. As an allegory of the soul's conflicts and struggles with evil in its journey through life, it is unsurpassed. It is believed that no other book, except the Bible, has gone through so many editions or attained such a popularity in all languages.

Bunyan was of poor parentage, his father being a tinker. At one time Bunyan was in the parliamentary army, and in 1645 was a prisoner at the siege of Leicester. Having left the army he married, then after a time of great spiritual anxiety and doubt, with quiet intervals, he became a member and then a minister of the Baptist congregation at Bedford. His labors were stopped by the act of conventicles and Bunyan was a prisoner in Bedford jail for twelve years. While in prison Bunyan assisted in providing for his wife and family by making tagged laces. The only books he had during his confinement were the Bible and Fox's Book of Martyrs. Through the interposition of Bishop Barlow of Lincoln Bunyan was released, and resumed his work as a preacher until his death of fever in London in 1688. Bunyan also wrote the "Holy War" and other books less known to fame.

WENT TO CHURCH TO STEAL

Prisoner Is Rated by Philadelphia Judge as Meanest Kind of Thief.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Joseph Waters was convicted of stealing from worshippers in St. John's Catholic church, on Thirteenth street, above Chestnut, and Judge Kinsey sentenced him to the Huntingdon reformatory.

"This fellow is the meanest kind of a thief," said Judge Kinsey in reply to the plea of Attorney C. S. Patterson, Jr., for leniency, "to go into a church and steal purses while the owners are bowed in worship."

Waters, who has been in court on a variety of charges, but never before convicted, went to the church and, entering a pew in which was kneeling Margaret McGinty of 1829 North Croskey street, threw his cap over her pocketbook containing a sum of money. A few moments later he picked up the cap and also the purse, but was arrested before he could make off with it.

SUN'S RAYS SET FATAL FIRE

Mrs. Bulwinkle of New York Ignites Clothing With Reflector—May Die.

New York.—A fire lighted by the sun's rays, focused by a large lamp reflector, was responsible for burns which may prove fatal to Mrs. Minnie Bulwinkle, caretaker of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church. She lies at the point of death in St. Vincent's hospital.

Mrs. Bulwinkle was standing in front of the church holding the reflector in her hand and idly watching its concentration of the sun's rays upon the thin material of her dress. Suddenly there was a wisp of smoke and in a moment her clothing was all afame. A policeman summoned by her screams threw off his coat and smothered the fire, but too late to save her from serious injury.

Funeral Of Madge Carman

One of the largest home funerals ever held in the county was that of Miss Madge Carman at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Carman of Seldon, Thursday afternoon.

The pathos of the death of this talented and lovely girl, idolized by her family and a favorite with all who knew her, called to the great beyond so prematurely, and in a far land, touched a wide circle and from all parts of the county people gathered, crowding the house and overflowing the large grounds.

A simple and effective service was conducted by Rev. Ricketts, of Staunton, assisted by Rev. Jason Henkle, of the M. P. church.

Two beautiful duets were sung by Mrs. J. B. Mark and daughter, Miss Katharine, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Mark Bush.

The songs were, "Some One's Last Call" and "Closer to Thee", favorites of Madge's and the ones that she had often sung to her father. Sobs broke through the music and many turned towards the beautiful girl, who slept so peacefully amid a wealth of flowers.

It was gratifying to friends to learn from the pastor something of the last weeks of life in Asheville, N. C. Her nurse, and every one with whom she came in contact learned to love her and during such a short time her life bloomed like a flower, leaving its perfume in the South as it had done in the North. Her death was beautiful and brave. From the first she did not expect to get well and charged Mrs. W. A. Rogers, of Good Hope, in Asheville for the winter, and who was with her during her illness, to comfort her family and to tell them that she was not afraid to die. Her sole thought seems to be to console her mother and the devoted brother, Dr. Will Carman, who had left his practice in Kentucky to be with her in Asheville, and to send back through them messages of comfort to her family here.

Rev. Ricketts paid deserved tribute to Miss Carman's lovely character and to the talent of the young artist, so far beyond the ordinary. Beautiful letters from the President of Otterbein university, Dr. Clippinger, and the art teacher, Mrs. Scott, testified to the admiration and love given to her in her college life.

The flowers were wonderfully beautiful, including a quantity from Otterbein university.

A long line of carriages accompanied the family to the Washington cemetery for the final services at the grave, beautifully lined with smilax, roses and carnations.

The pall-bearers were the four brothers, Dr. Will Carman, Paint Lick, Ky.; Mr. Earl Carman, St. Louis, Mo.; A. G. and Paul Carman, brothers-in-law, Mr. Arthur Harrop, of Denver, Colo., and Mr. E. L. Bush, of this city.

Besides the immediate family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harrop, of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Elchamberger, of Dayton; Dr. Will Carman and Mr. Earl Carman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Braden, of Good Hope; friends from a distance were Miss Ada Brown, of Zanesville, an Otterbein friend; Mr. Zimmerman and daughter, of Xenia; Mr. and Mrs. Will Teter, of Leesburg.

It means we pledge ourselves that it is the best that money can buy, or back you may come for your money.

50,000 Turks Captured

long as their Turkish frontier and are more than 20 miles inside Turkish territory. Their next attack will be Adrianople, and they are in a position now to attack it from the west, north and northeast.

Turks Claim Victory.

Both the Turks and Servians claim tremendous victories in Albania. The Turkish dispatches say that the Turks officially claim to have put the main Servian army to flight. Dispatches from Serbia say that the Servians have captured the town of Kumanova.

Military authorities agree that the capture of the fortress by the Bulgarians may develop to be the most decisive point in the war. They think that the Turks, with Adrianople gone, would be of little power in European Turkey, and that Adrianople can not stand with Kirk-Kilesseh lost to the Bulgarians. The fortress is 35 miles to the east of Adrianople.

A dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, says: "Five thousand men surrendered to the Bulgarians when the Turkish town and garrison of Kirk-Kilesseh was taken. Two Turkish generals were among those taken. The capture of this outpost opens the way to Adrianople."

Another report states that the Turkish garrison at Kirk-Kilesseh numbered nearly 50,000 men and that all fell prisoners to the Bulgarians.

Harmon Reception Surprise

Governor Taken by Surprise When He Returns From California.

Columbus, O., Oct. 25.—Taken by surprise, Governor Harmon, on his return from California, where he had gone to select the site for the Ohio building at the Panama exposition, stepped from Union station to find himself the center of a demonstration which he described as "the greatest he had ever seen." In a triumphant march, with a military escort, composed of three companies of infantry and one troop of cavalry, he was escorted to the Southern hotel, where, at a public reception, he recounted the experiences of his trip, and, with tears brimming his eyes, informed his friends that, although he had become deeply attached to Columbus, he expects soon to return to his old home in Cincinnati.

Bleriot's Latest Flyer

With Two Passengers He Makes a Mile in Minute and a Half.

Paris, Oct. 25.—Bleriot, the former aviator, who of late years has devoted all his time to designing and manufacturing air machines, revisited the aerial domain in a hydro-aeroplane of his own design and built by himself. The machine weighs 100 kilos less than similar machines. Bleriot flew in the air and speeded over the water in splendid style. With two passengers he covered a mile in a minute and a half. Bleriot says he is going to furnish this sort of machines to the Colombian government for service on rivers.

A NEGLECTED JOB NEVER HURTS THE JOB. IT HURTS THE ONE WHO NEGLECTS IT

Same way with a poor suit. It never hurts the man who buys it as much as it hurts the man who sells it.

Our label in a coat means as much to us as an artist's name under a picture, or a sculptor's name chiselled in stone.

It means we pledge ourselves that it is the best that money can buy, or back you may come for your money.

See what we have accomplished with the coat with a soft roll.

See the jauntiness we've infused into them, with the narrow shoulders and the trim waist.

It seems an injustice to the garments to price them.

$12 $15 $18 and $20

instead of from $18 to $35, which they are so easily worth.

Tenor Alleges Defamation of Character in His Suit.

Milan, Oct. 25.—The trial of the suit for defamation of character brought by Signor Enrico Caruso, the tenor, against Signorina Giachetti, the operatic singer, a theatrical agent named Loria, a journalist named Micalissi and chauffeur, began here. The case arose out of charges made by Signorina Giachetti in a suit brought by her against the tenor in 1909 that he had tampered with her mail and seized a rich contract which had been sent to her by Oscar Hammerstein. The court found that these charges were false and that there had been considerable perjury and bribery. The signorina charged that the alleged act of Caruso was in revenge because she had ceased to love him.

LAWYER BUTTED IN

Juror's Objections Made It Necessary to Declare a Mistrial.

New York, Oct. 25.—While Justice Rudd of Albany was hearing a case in the supreme court, Juror No. 3 surprised the court with the remark, "If that other fellow don't quit butting in we can never get at the facts of this case."

The juror referred to objections being raised by Lawyer James S. Darcy to questions asked a witness by Harry Wilbur, counsel on the other side. The court told the juror that the lawyer had a right to raise objections and the juror replied: "Well, we can't understand the case if he don't stop butting in."

Counsel and court agreed that the juror's remarks made it necessary to declare a mistrial, which was done.

Madero Becomes Chesty

Says Trouble Through Which Mexico Has Passed is at an End.

New York, Oct. 25.—President Madero of Mexico made the following statement:

"The federal troops' easy capture of the important port of Vera Cruz, with Felix Diaz, the commander of the rebel movement there, insures the speedy pacification of the entire country. Foreigners are assured of complete protection of their lives and property throughout the republic. It may be taken for granted that the period of trouble through which the country has passed is practically at an end."
